Guitar Pro announces New Education Licensing Program

Lille, France - September 26, 2012

Arobas Music, publisher of the tablature playing and editing software Guitar Pro, announces the creation of an "Education" program.

This free program allows schools and other musical institutions worldwide to procure and deploy Guitar Pro 6 across an entire school, campus and/or system with a single license key.

Contribute to promoting excellence in musical education

To accompany teachers as they train their students, Arobas Music launches the Guitar Pro Education program, which gives access to:

- A free multi-computers license for the Guitar Pro 6 software, for all players in the music teaching field (training centers, faculty, music schools, universities, high-schools...).
- A special discount for the students of the institutions enrolled in the program, should they wish to acquire the software for their own private use. That is, a 50% discount on the license which will be available for €/ $29.95.

The students will enjoy the advantages of an educational software package for their musical training and compositions. The teachers will have access to an advanced tool for creating and sharing practical exercises.
