New Guitar Pro offer: 6 new packs of additional soundbanks

Lille, France - July 5, 2011

Arobas Music, publisher of the Guitar Pro 6 software program, widens its range of products with 6 new packs of additional soundbanks.

With those new soundbanks integrated into their Guitar Pro interface, the program's users will be able to use a large selection of high-quality instruments for their musical compositions or for making their Guitar Pro files sound just like the originals of their favorite songs.

Guitars, basses, keyboards, drums, it's all in there!

Starting Friday, July 8th, 2011, over 100 new soundbanks will be available on www.guitar-pro.com by way of 6 packs grouped by instruments: vintage electric guitars, modern electric guitars, acoustic/exotic guitars, basses, keyboards/synths, drums. An opportunity for the program's fans to rediscover such essential sounds as the mandolin or the Dobro guitar. The packs will be marketed individually for €7.99. The whole series (6 packs) will be available at €31.99.

Special offer: 50% discount on the whole pack for 48 hours.

As a promotional introductory operation, the whole pack will be exceptionally discounted by 50%, that is €15.99 instead of €31.99. The operation will start on July 8th, 2011, and will last for 48 hours.
